

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, as amended, is a federal law that protects the privacy and confidentiality of personally identifiable information contained within student education records. The University of Kentucky College of Dentistry complies with FERPA confidentiality protections and adheres to procedures dealing with student education records.

I understand my rights under FERPA and I understand that in order for the University of Kentucky College of Dentistry to disclose personally identifiable information from my student education records to anyone other than myself, I must provide consent.

I consent to allow the following individuals access to my educational records for the sole purpose of writing a letter of recommendation.
